UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

NO. CR21-045 JCC

INDICTMENT

v.

SUMIT GARG,

Defendant.

The Grand Jury charges that:

General Allegations

1. Defendant SUMIT GARG is a technologically sophisticated person who has worked in the computer security and privacy fields.

2. In 2019, GARG shared a two-bedroom apartment in the Belltown neighborhood of Seattle, Washington with his wife and Victim-1.

3. While sharing the apartment with Victim-1, GARG snuck into Victim-1's room and accessed Victim-1's diary without her authorization or knowledge. In doing so, GARG left his fingerprints on multiple pages of the diary. The diary contained intimate details about Victim-1's private life and prior relationships.

1 4. GARG gave Victim-1 the nickname “Spicy.” He also sent Victim-1
 2 multiple text messages with sexual innuendo, and expressed an interest in Victim-1’s
 3 dating life.

4 5. GARG informed Victim-1 that he suffered from intermittent explosive
 5 disorder (“IED”), a disorder that caused him to have angry verbal outbursts.

6 6. In or around June 2019, GARG and Victim-1 had a dispute, during which
 7 GARG subjected Victim-1 to an emotional outburst. Shortly after the outburst, on or 8 about June 22, 2019, GARG sent Victim-1 an email in which he apologized for his
 9 misconduct and confessed his feelings for Victim-1:

10 Hey Spicy.

11 I have unblocked you from fb insta phone everything. I will always regret
 12 what I did today. I care a great deal about you but unfortunately I tend to 13 hurt people I love the most. I will always help you and support you in the 14 worst of problems. I feel really guilty especially remembering how you
 15 were so nice even when I had a car accident. I truly hate myself. Nothing I
 16 can say will make up for anything but trust me as I do love and care about
 17 you a lot. I really wish I had anything but IED. Honestly, it is me who 18 does not deserve anything friends, family . . . nothing so please treat those 19 things as projection of my inabilities on you. You are absolutely lovely and 20 a much better human being than I will ever be.

21 (emphasis in the original).

22 7. That same day, GARG sent Victim-1 a message using Facebook Messenger
 23 which contained a picture of a woman in a wedding dress and a caption, “Who will be the 24 prettiest bride in the future?” GARG then sent her a message stating, “Considering how 25 you dress even on normal days – this will be you:.”

26 8. In June 2019, GARG and Victim-1 had a verbal dispute over a plan for one
 27 of Victim-1’s friends to visit from out of state. Frightened by GARG, Victim-1 feared
 28 for her safety and left the apartment.

9. On or about July 2, 2019, Victim-1 initiated a civil action for a protection order against GARG, and subsequently moved out of the apartment. During the civil litigation, GARG repeatedly denied any misconduct and alleged that Victim-1 had filed the civil action to get out of her lease obligations.

10. On or about July 19, 2019, GARG and Victim-1 signed a settlement agreement to resolve the civil action. In the agreement, GARG agreed to have no direct or indirect contact with Victim-1. GARG further agreed not to engage in any stalking, cyberstalking, and physical or electronic surveillance, among other things.

11. On or about November 6, 2020, GARG was charged in King County Superior Court by a felony information with one count of felony Cyberstalking, one count of Felony Stalking, and one count of misdemeanor Cyberstalking. On or about November 10, 2020, the King County Superior Court issued a Stalking Violence No-Contact Order prohibiting GARG from having contact with Victim-1, and an Order Prohibiting Contact that prohibited GARG from having direct or indirect contact with Victim-2 (Victim-1's uncle) and Victim-3 (Victim-1's boyfriend).

(Conspiracy to Engage in Cyberstalking)

12. The allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 11 of this Indictment are re-alleged and incorporated as if set forth fully herein.

13. Beginning at a time unknown, but no later than November 2019, and continuing through on or about March 8, 2021, in Seattle, within the Western District of Washington, and elsewhere, SUMIT GARG and others known and unknown to the grand jury, did knowingly and willfully combine, conspire, confederate and agree together to commit offenses against the United States. Namely, to, with the intent to harass and intimidate over a dozen victims, use an interactive computer service, an electronic communications service, an electronic communication system of interstate commerce.

1 and other facilities of interstate and foreign commerce, to wit: services and systems that
2 enable phone calls, text messages, online postings, emails, and social media messaging
3 and posting, to engage in a course of conduct that placed the victims in reasonable fear of
4 death and serious bodily injury, and caused, attempted to cause, and would be reasonably
5 expected to cause, substantial emotional distress to the victims and the victims'
6 immediate family members, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section
7 2261A(2)(A) and (B).

OBJECT AND PURPOSE OF THE CONSPIRACY

14. An object of the conspiracy was to carry out a cyberstalking campaign that would place the victims in fear that they and their immediate family members would be subject to death, serious bodily injury, and substantial emotional distress.

15. An additional object of the conspiracy was to use threatening messages and false reports to law enforcement to create the illusion that GARG was a victim of the cyberstalking scheme, rather than its perpetrator. In doing so, the conspiracy sought to frustrate both Victim-1's efforts to obtain a civil protection order against GARG and King County's efforts to prosecute GARG in King County Superior Court.

MANNER AND MEANS OF THE CONSPIRACY

16. GARG, and others known and unknown to the grand jury, carried out the conspiracy through the use of a variety of electronic communication applications and platforms, including Gmail, Facebook, and LinkedIn, among others, through which they harassed and intimidated the victims by sending harassing and threatening messages, designed to cause substantial emotional distress and to place the victims and their family members in fear of death and serious bodily injury.

17. The conspiracy targeted the following victims, among numerous others:

Victim-1	Victim-1 was a former roommate of GARG. She filed a civil protection action against GARG. GARG improperly accessed Victim-1's diary and obtained non-public
-----------------	---

1		information about Victim-1's health and former relationships.
3	Victim-2	Victim-2 is Victim-1's uncle and lawyer.
5	Victim-3	Victim-3 is Victim-1's current boyfriend. During the cyberstalking campaign, the conspiracy set up multiple online accounts that impersonated Victim-3.
8	Victim-9	Victim-9 is an SPD detective who investigated GARG.
10	Victim-11	Victim-11 is a prosecutor litigating criminal charges against GARG in King County Superior Court.

13

 18 and elsewhere:

 21 alleging that she had affairs with married men. The emails were sent from accounts that
 22 integrated names of boyfriends that were identified in Victim-1's journal.

23 19. Starting in approximately January 2020, the conspiracy sent anonymous
 24 emails to Victim-1 that referenced private information contained in Victim-1's diary.

25 20. Starting in approximately February 2020, the conspiracy set up a variety of 26 social media accounts that impersonated Victim-1 and current or former boyfriends of 27 Victim-1 who were mentioned in Victim-1's diary. Among other things, the accounts

28

1 were used: (1) to send friend requests to Victim-1, her friends, and her co-workers; (2) to
2 comment on posts made by Victim-1; and (3) to humiliate Victim-1.

6 22. From approximately June 27, 2020 to December 6, 2020, GARG made, or

7 28. On November 15, 2020, the conspiracy sent an email to Victim-1, Victim-
8 2, and others, with the subject line, “Don’t be scared.” The email contained the following
9 message:

10 “Spicy”,
11 Do you really think a few days in jail was going to scare me?
12 Don’t be scared. I won’t kill you.
13 It is too easy and not nearly enough punishment for your crimes.
14 I have other ideas to take care of you.
15 Mr. [Victim-2], as for you, you won’t see 2021. I recommend enjoying
16 every day you can from what I’m hearing you are with Ms. [Victim-1].

27 to that!

3 Detective [Victim-9],
 4 I’m tired of lying. I want to confess everything.
 5 I did have sex with [Victim-1] numerous times although I did not rape her.
 6 I did not have anal with her (as yet) [Victim-1] wasn’t open to the idea.
 7 I’m indeed sending all these harassing emails from my pixel 3a phone.
 8 I did take pictures of her apartment and of us fucking from my pixel 3a
 9 phone.

10 ...
 11 Thank You,
 12 Sumit Garg

13 33. On January 11, 2021, the conspiracy sent an email to Victim-1 and her
 14 sister, stating “[Victim-1’s sister] is next.”
